As annex number 1 to this document is appended an inventory in which are described the elements and the objects included in the indicated apartment, stating the value of replacement in case of loss, destruction or damage. It is stated there will solely be an inventory for each apartment and not for individual agreements. Mutually binding responsible are all those lessees responsible for contents and container.

Two. This contract, which is settled exclusively with regard to what associates THE LESSEE with the Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona in his quality of student, remains excluded from the current law on Urban Renting as decreed by article 5 of this law, and will be ruled by the agreements of this contract and by what the Civil Code or, if corresponding, Catalan civil legislation establishes as being necessary and by communal procedural laws.

THE LESSEE promises to observe what is laid out in the House Rules of Vila by declaring explicitly he knows of them; a copy of these rules signed by both parties to this contract to be added as annex number 2.

Three. This contract is agreed on for the period which corresponds with the academic year cursoAcademico2. The contract will come into force on fechaInicioContrato at 12:00 pm, and ends on fechaFinContrato at 12:00 pm.

According to the contract's length, the LESSOR will apply to the LESSEE the long-term rate, which is detailed on the website www.vilauniversitaria.com

The LESSOR can cancel the contract in advance, noticing it to the LESSEE 30 days previously to its contract's end. In this case, the LESSEE:

- The Lessee will pay the LESSOR the difference of price between the long-stay term rate and the regular rate* (published the previous website already mentioned) which includes the total of the monthly payment rents from the beginning until the end of the contract.
- Notwithstanding the previous section, the LESSEE will compensate the LESSOR with an amount equivalent to the rent which correspond to the previously agreed period still not fulfilled, otherwise, the LESSEE will lose the total amount corresponding to the deposit and the additional guarantee fee.

Four. For the duration of this contract the monthly payment of this rent is established at the monthly amount of precioMensual Euros, plus taxes, fees and participation in communal expenses which can be collected at any given moment. The established price must be paid by THE LESSEE in advanced monthly instalments, to which end payment must be made at Bank/Savings Bank bancoPago with account number numCuentaCorriente.

The costs of the consumption of water, electricity and telephone will be billed to THE LESSEE exclusively, to which end THE LESSOR will be freed from all responsibility for shortcomings in any supply.

The costs of these consumptions corresponding to the apartment will be divided into equal parts among the students occupying it.

The consumption costs of water, electricity and telephone expenses are exclusively to be charged to the lessee. The lessor will not take any responsibility on the lack of any supply.

Five. THE LESSEE acknowledges to have received to his satisfaction the apartment which is object of the contract, including the keys which permit access, and binds himself to keep it in perfect state.

Six. THE LESSEE will also be charged with the costs which spring from imperfections which may occur in glazing, locks and other elements of the installations, as well as the flawless maintenance of the allocated apartment and the other elements of the property in which it is situated.

THE LESSOR takes no responsibility for damages and harms caused by THE LESSEE to persons or objects, both those belonging to the apartment and those belonging to the other elements of the property in which it is situated.

THE LESSOR holds no responsibility whatsoever relative to the safety of the apartment, not even for possible damages caused to persons and objects in the event of fires, theft, robbery, damages and accidents of all type.

Seven. As part of this action THE LESSEE will submit the amount of fianza1 Euros as a security, equal to a monthly payment.

Furthermore as part of this action THE LESSEE will submit the amount of fianza2 Euros as an additional guarantee, to be able to fully meet the obligations established in this contract, the damages that might be caused to the apartment and the judicial costs when and if they occur.

Having expired the validity of this contract and in so far THE LESSEE has honestly complied with the agreements and the obligations which derive from them, THE LESSOR must refund all or part of the security and the additional guarantee as is deemed accordingly once all the invoices have been paid and the state in which the apartment is left is accepted upon inspection. In the event of unacceptability THE LESSOR will retain all or part of the security and the additional guarantee as is deemed accordingly.

The existence of the security and the additional guarantee will never serve as a pretext to delay payment of the rent or of any other quantities which THE LESSEE has assumed payment of.

Eight. THE LESSEE furthermore binds himself:

- In case of being a first time resident of our installations to collect the keys to his apartment before the 15th of September of the academic year corresponding with this contract. In exceptional circumstances related to the safety, hygiene and liveability of the apartment or the property, THE LESSOR or any other person representing him will be allowed to enter the apartment of THE LESSEE in his absence and/or without his prior knowledge.
- To pay to THE LESSOR all the costs as well as the damages and harms which might provoke failure to pay the rent, and/or infraction of this contract.
- To pay all the judicial and extra-judicial costs which may result from observing or terminating this contract, including the fees of a lawyer and the royalties of a solicitor, even if their interventions were facultative.

Nine. This contract will be terminated by the following causes:

- Cancelling of the association which links THE LESSEE with the Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona.
- Breaching of the House Rules.
- Breaching of any of the obligations agreed upon.
- Breaching for whatever reason of what is imposed by prevailing laws.

The occurrence of any of these causes entitles THE LESSOR to urge and secure the termination of this contract, without necessity of any prior requirement or notification.

Ten. All communications in relation to this contract which must be notified and directed to THE LESSEE will be remitted to the rented apartment and to THE LESSEE; in the event THE LESSEE is not found in the apartment, these can be delivered to any neighbour.

If for any reason one or more of the clauses of this contract were declared null or devoid of value, both parties remain obliged to comply with one or more other clauses which substitute these and serve to the same effects initially agreed upon.

Eleven. This contract will terminate automatically without the need of prior notification on the date indicated in clause One, which is to say at the end of the period agreed upon. On this date THE LESSEE must hand in the keys to the apartment without delay.

Otherwise THE LESSEE must pay, apart from the costs and expenditures which derive from his failure or which are subject to penalty, a quantity equal to twice the price agreed upon for each period or fraction which has passed, until THE LESSOR obtains the free possession.

Twelve. The TENANT declares that he/she knows about the use of video-surveillance devices on the part of Vila Universit ria SL to guarantee the security of persons and goods and to ensure strict compliance with the Regulations.
